FAREWELL MESSAGE

We have been Sergeants for a year and have attempted to perform to the best of our respective abilities; and now our term has come to a close, but our services and duties to the Company will not end with it.

The friend who sponsored my membership in the Company told me that no one really understands the workings of the Company until he has served as a Sergeant. He was right.

During our term we were very fortunate to have received cooperation and assistance from all of the officers, past commanders and members of the Company. For this we are grateful.

At this time we are unanimously in agreement: That we are proud of the Company and are happy to have served as Sergeants and of the friendships made would gladly serve the term over again, our only regret being that our term has come to an end so quickly.

Thank you . . . For all of the Sergeants,

John J. Doyle, Jr.
2nd Sergeant of Infantry

GET-WELL MESSAGE

We Sergeants have been saddened by the severe and sudden illness of our 1st Sergeant, Paul E. Tierney, and join with all of the officers and members of the Company in wishing him a speedy recovery.

APPRECIATION

We are indeed fortunate to have the continued loyal cooperation of our members and friends who again followed the pattern of "The Sergeants" of past years by subscribing for space in this book. For this we express our deep gratitude as it insured the success of this Farewell Party as well as fulfilling our year's program of accomplishments as planned when we were elected.

HAVE YOU SEEN OUR NEW LOOK IN Elegance?

At the Sheraton-Plaza we've turned the clock back half a century. There's been a full-scale "restoration" . . . restoring the interior to the way it looked when the hotel opened in 1912. You'll see here all the grandeur of those high, wide and handsome days before World War I. In our lobby there is shimmering marble . . . the finest heavy carpeting . . . lighting installations that dramatize the unique beauty of the original 1912 ceiling. And there's a distinctive, sumptuous look throughout the Sheraton-Plaza. Especially, of course, in the rooms. All have been redone in a luxurious new decor . . . many in the full splendor of French and Italian Provincial, with authentic furnishings brought from Europe. Everywhere you'll find our new look in elegance.

P.S. You'll also find at the Sheraton-Plaza all of our customary facilities, service and hospitality. The Cafe Plaza is as graciously inviting as ever; the Town Room welcomes you for luncheon or a buffet dinner; the Merry-Go-Round is still the merriest rendezvous in all the city. Come see us often.

HOW SLEEP THE BRAVE

How sleep the brave, who sink to rest
By all their country's wishes blest!
When Spring, with dewy fingers cold,
Returns to deck their hallow'd mould,
She there shall dress a sweeter sod
Than Fancy's feet have ever trod.

By fairy hands their knell is rung;
By forms unseen their dirge is sung;
There Honour comes, a pilgrim grey.
To bless the turf that wraps their clay;
And Freedom shall awhile repair
To dwell, a weeping hermit, there!

— William Collins

ADONAIS

He has outsoared the shadow of our night;
Envy and calumny and hate and pain,
And that unrest which men miscall delight,
Can touch him not and torture not again;
From the contagion of the world's slow stain
He is secure, and now can never mourn
A heart grown cold, a head grown grey in vain;
Nor, when the spirit's self has ceased to burn,
With sparkless ashes load an unlamented urn.
